proudly presents

GENICON 2011

APRIL 15 - 17

Featuring special guests:-

RICK MERRILL and STEPHEN BARGATZE

The Geniis Magical Society is widely known as the “Club With The Friendly Spirit” and for many years hosted a regular Weekend Of Magic which attracted guests from Sydney and Interstate for a relaxed and enjoyable magic experience. Well, we’re back in 2011 with special guests, lectures, performances and more fun yet to be announced! Come for the weekend, stay for the Sydney Easter Show.

We start on the evening of Friday April 15, and finish around 6 pm on Sunday 17th.

Our venue is the [Rosehill Bowling Club \[click for map\]](#) on James Ruse Drive, close to the Mercure Parramatta Hotel (room rates around $149) and plenty of great eateries (including Hooters ... )

Register NOW and pay just $180 ($140 for 16 years & under) - after December 31 it's $200 ($150 16 & under), after March 31 it's $240 - so book early for big savings.

special guests

STEPHEN BARGATZE is an internationally acclaimed comedian and motivational speaker. With over 25 years' experience, Stephen is a rare talent among entertainers. His genuine personality endears him to any audience, and he quickly develops a strong, positive relationship with the crowd. No longer merely spectators, audiences find themselves caught up in the comedy and amazement of Stephen's zany performance.

RICK MERRILL has established himself as the best up-and-coming comedic magician today. In 2004 he was voted best in comedy and close-up magic at the Society of American Magicians AND International Brotherhood of Magicians U.S. Championships. In August 2006 at the prestigious "invitation only" FISM World Championships of Magic in Stockholm, Sweden he again took home top honors in both comedy and magic.
